

PASSES AWAY IN LEBANON

Dr. W. H. Booth.

PASSES AWAY IN LEBANON

Dr. W. H. Booth.

LEBANON, Or., June 20.—Dr. W. H. Booth, a retired physician, who, for 24 years has been a resident of this city, died here on Thursday of heart failure, aged 61. His health has been failing for several years and last year he spent the Summer in California, hoping to be benefited by the change. He was an extensive property owner and was building one of the best reinforced concrete structures in this city, to be completed this month, when he died.

Dr. Booth was born in Newton, Ia., January 13, 1853. He came to Oregon 24 years ago and practiced medicine here until last September when he retired. In his early manhood he married Miss Elizabeth White and to them was born two children, W. J. Booth, of this city, and Mrs. Edith Shanks, of Condon. Later he married Miss Malvina Miller, who survives. The funeral will take place in the Methodist Church, of which he is a member, Sunday, at 2 o'clock and interment will be in the Masonic Cemetery.

THE

CITY EDITION

MAKES GI

9 AUSTRIAN ARMY OFFICERS DIE IN AIR

Play at War Ends in Tragic Explosion of Dirigible.

BIPLANE RIPS GASBAG
1500 FEET FROM GROUND

Flames Consume Both Machines and Send Charred
Bodies to Earth.

VIENNA, June 20.—Nine aviators lost their lives today when a mimic war in the air was suddenly turned into tragic reality by the accidental ripping of a dirigible airship by a biplane while both were flying at a great height during the Austrian Army maneuvers.

Both craft were destroyed and

Dr. W. H. Booth.

Dr. W. H. Booth.